Remind your 4-H members, coaches, leaders and parents that the Ozaukee County 4-H Sportsmanship Code of Conduct is in place and will be followed. Violations of the sportsmanship code can result in disqualification of the entire club team, or removal of an individual team member, coach, leader or parent. Any one can report observed unsportsmanlike conduct to Megan Pipkorn, Older Youth Advisor.

Ribbons will be awarded to the first and second place teams. Certificates will be available at the tournament for every participant. Bakery, drinks, chips, hamburgers, brats and hot dogs will be sold throughout the tournament. Club teams are asked to bring cookies and bars to sell to help Older Youth defray the cost of the tournament. NO FOOD OR DRINK IS ALLOWED IN THE GYM.

Since this letter and application form is being sent only to the main contact general leader, one per club, please pass it on to your coach, and make sure it is announced at your club meeting. Entries are due by March 26th, 2010 at 5:00 pm in the UW-Extension office.

Older Youth Advisor Megan Pipkorn (262-573-4060) should be contacted if you have questions about the tournament.

Each club will be responsible for bringing their own volleyballs to use for practice. Neither Older Youth nor the school will have volleyballs available for others to use.

Sincerely,
